

Ster Van Zuid-Limburg 09

Connor O'Leary: Prologue 30th Place

Borlo, Belgium (April 10, 2009)—Junior National Team member Adam Leibovitz (Indianapolis, Ind./Nuvo Cultural Trail) won Friday's prologue of the Ster Van Zuid-Limburg stage race in Belgium, clocking a winning time of 6 minutes, 21 seconds over the five-kilometer course.

One of 34 Americans participating in USA Cycling's national team program in Europe this month, Leibovitz, also a member of the Marian College cycling team, is one of six juniors competing in the four-day event. Teammate Jacob Rathe (Portland, Ore./CMG Racing) also scored a top-ten finish, placing seventh.

Three others – Lawson Craddock (Houston, Texas/Hot Tubes), Nathan Brown (Covington, Tenn./Hot Tubes) and Alex Battles-Wood (Tulsa, Ok./Power Train) – finished in the top 20 of the 186-rider field, placing 11th, 19th and 20th respectively. The squad's sixth member, Connor O'Leary (Salt Lake City, Utah/FFKR Architects-SportsBaseOnline) was 30th.

